

TRASH FEST!

Get Creative With Your Waste NEW Event in Town! This June!

- We're turning the Marbletown Transfer Station into an art gallery! Opening event Sat. June 4th, 12:30-3:30 at the Transfer Station. Performance. Public art build.
- Art made of re-sourced materials at The Wired Gallery and the Marbletown Community Center. Opening event at Wired on Sat. June 4th, 3:30-5:30
- Concert at the Rail Trail Café, Sun. June 5th, 7pm-10pm
- Film showing of Bag It: Is your Life Too Plastic? Wed. June 15th, 5:30-7:30 at the Marbletown Community Center
- Reducing Your Personal Waste Stream, a workshop with Jacquie Ottman, Thurs. June 16th, 5:30-7:30, at the Marbletown Community Center.
- Cornell Cooperative Extension Composting Workshop, Sat. June 18th, 10am-11am at the Cornell Community Garden on the SUNY Ulster campus
- More. Public discussion on 'single use bags in town' (date TBA) and Take the Nigel Poor Challenge: Explore your "remnants" for a week at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ByOd5G4yRzM>

To get more information and to get involved with TRASH FEST contact:
MargotRBecker@hotmail.com or find us on facebook at TRASH FEST Ulster

This project is made possible with funds from the Decentralization Program, a regrant program of the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature and administered by Arts Mid-Hudson. TRASH FEST is sponsored by League of Women Voters Mid-Hudson Region (LWVHR) and by the Marbletown Environmental Conservation Commission (ECC).